

NEW THURSDAY NIGHT WEEKLY SERVICE

6:30-8:00pm | Starting February 11

We exist to bring others into a saving relationship with Christ and help them to become disciples. WRCC has been growing in our efforts and focus on loving our community by meeting the needs of those around us. Besides the strong food pantry, home builds, adopting neighborhoods, Faith, Hope & Love, & more, the Thursday service is another effort to meet those needs. We pray that God would bless this service and we would see life changing moments like the ones we experience on Sundays. Thursday Night Service will be a full fledged church service. Worship service will include the same songs & the same teaching that will be featured on Sunday Morning.

WEEKLY MEAL FOR FOOD PANTRY PATRONS

Help feed the hungry a meal before their souls are fed on Thursdays beginning February 11. We need individuals or groups who are willing to provide/prepare meals before the service. The meal will be offered to our Food Pantry guests & volunteers from 5:00-6:00pm in the Discovery Room & will need to be prepared prior to that time. Please contact Fred Knoll at fredk@wrcc.org if you are interested.

If you or a friend or family member are coping with grief, divorce or addiction, plan to attend one of these groups to find encouragement both in Scripture & from others who share your pain. For more information, contact Dave Snyder at 776-4187 or dsnyder@wrcc.org. Childcare is provided & there is no charge for participating.
