THE PASSION OF THE CHRIST April 1 | 6:00-8:00pm (Note Time Change)

We will be viewing the movie, "The Passion of the Christ." The movie will begin at 6:00pm sharp, so please have your children dropped off by 5:50pm in their areas. The movie will last until 8:00pm. This movie is life changing. If you've seen it before, don't miss this opportunity to watch it again. If you've never seen it, this is a great opportunity to watch something that quite honestly will deepen your relationship with Christ! The movie is rated R for sequences of graphic violence.

Youth programming will be open from 5:45-8:15pm & is as follows:

It's pajama night for preschool children, so wear your PJ's and bring a blanket or sleeping bag & pillow. Children will be watching two Max Lucado movies, "Hermie & Friends: Buzby & the Grumble Bees" & "Wemmicks: You are Special."

Elementary students (grades K-4) are also doing PJ night. Bring a blanket or sleeping bag & pillow to the Kidszone where we will be watching the movie "Homeward Bound: The Incredible Journey," (G).

Jr. High students (grades 5-8), will watch the movie, The Pistol: The Birth of a Legend (G), the biography of pro basketball player "Pistol" Pete Maravich in the Discovery Room. Visit WRCC.ORG for more information about the movie. Students will be allowed to watch The Passion with their parents or guardians if parents prefer.

Sr. High Students are invited to watch the movie either with their parents or with written permission from parent or guardian. Download a permission slip at our web site, WRCC.ORG. Or, Sr. High students may watch The Pistol with Jr. High.
